

Encouraging Voice, Empowering the Unheard

VOLUNTEER APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with the Toronto Writers Collective to facilitate a writing workshop as part of the TWC's creative writing workshops. We currently provide creative/expressive writing workshops in Toronto and Mississauga for vulnerable community members. By creating a community of writers in Ottawa from all economic backgrounds, races, ages and sexual orientations, we will encourage people to gain confidence and a stronger sense of self, find and expand their voices and discover the value of their own stories.

Volunteer workshop facilitators are required to participate in our extensive training and support program. This program includes: 1) a full weekend of training; 2) attending meetings of workshop facilitators; and 3) regular correspondence with the Director of Programming and Outreach & Communications Manager.

Workshops will begin in Ottawa shortly after the training. Graduating facilitators will work with experienced facilitators and co-facilitate at workshops shortly after their training is completed. Workshops are held for 1 ½ - 2 hours per week.

Our training session in Ottawa is scheduled for January 31-February 2 (location to be confirmed). The training is a full weekend. Friday: 6:30-9:30 pm. Saturday: 9am-5pm. Sunday: 9:30am-5pm.

Space is limited, so not everyone who applies to volunteer will be accepted. Preference will be given to those who have:

1. A commitment to and understanding of TWC's philosophy of creating a respectful and positive environment where people can write and share their stories.
2. Availability to facilitate workshops (please review the calendar at www.torontowriterscollective.ca for our current workshops)
3. A history of community involvement
4. Ties to the community/ies they propose to serve
5. Experience with writing groups
6. Facilitation, leadership or teaching experience

Please answer each of the questions on the following pages as fully and concisely as possible. Feel free to attach additional sheets of paper as necessary.

Thanks again for your interest.

Encouraging Voice, Empowering the Unheard

Describe the role creative writing plays in your life.

Would you be comfortable writing with others in a confidential setting about your family, your history, your scars and your secrets? Can you write deeply and authentically without having to be the best writer in the room?

Briefly describe any previous volunteer and/or social service experience you have had.

What experiences have you had in writing workshops as a participant and/or as a facilitator?

What does the phrase “safe space for writing” mean to you?

In your opinion, what is the distinction between “teaching” and “leading” or “facilitating”?

Encouraging Voice, Empowering the Unheard

What life experiences have you had that will be helpful to you in leading writing workshops with the TWC, or that have led you to want to volunteer with us.

If you have previous facilitation experience whether in writing or other areas are you open to learning and practicing new ways of facilitating?

What groups are you most interested in working with? Are there any groups that you do not feel comfortable working with? (This question is purely to determine your interest and bears no weight in considering your application)

How did you hear about the TWC expressive writing workshops?
