

Writer Together We Change the World

VOLUNTEER FACILITATOR APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in becoming a volunteer facilitator with the Toronto Writers Collective. We currently provide exploratory writing workshops in Toronto, Mississauga, Montreal, and Ottawa for underserved and underheard individuals. By creating a community of writers inclusive of race, ethnicity, class, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, physical ability, and mental health, we empower people to grow as writers. By writing together and listening to each other, we connect with the common humanity that bonds us all.

Our extensive training program supports volunteer workshop facilitators. Please be prepared to:

- 1) Read Writing Alone and with Others by Pat Schneider - a valuable resource that provides the core values and structure of what we do.
- 2) watch the introductory video on our website and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TX4YN5j9gRs>.
- 3) attend at least one virtual workshop before training.
- 4) complete the weekend of training.
- 5) attend a 1 ½ hour post-training virtual workshop delivery information session.
- 6) report attendance and stay connected with the Director of Programming and the Outreach and Communications Manager.

The next training session is for Family Councils of Ontario:

Friday evening, June 4, all day Saturday and Sunday June 5-6, 2021. Hours will be confirmed.

Space is limited. Preference will be given to those who have:

1. A commitment to and understanding of TWC's philosophy of creating a respectful and positive environment where people can write and share their stories.
2. Availability to facilitate workshops (please review the calendar at www.torontowriterscollective.ca for our current workshops).
3. Ties to the community/ies you are interested in working with.
4. A history of community engagement.
5. Experience with writing groups as a participant or facilitator.
6. Facilitation, leadership or teaching experience.

Graduates will co-facilitate with experienced facilitators before leading their own workshops -- 1½ - 2 hours per week. A commitment of at least 10 weeks is expected.

This training is co-funded by the Rotary Club of Toronto, FCO and the TWC.

Thank you for your interest. Please answer each of the questions as fully and concisely as possible. Feel free to attach additional sheets of paper as necessary.

Describe the role creative writing plays in your life.

Would you be comfortable writing with others in a confidential setting about your family, your history, your scars and your secrets? Can you write deeply and authentically without having to be the best writer in the room?

Briefly describe any previous volunteer and/or social service experience you have had.

What experiences have you had in writing workshops as a participant and/or as a facilitator?

What does the phrase “safe space for writing” mean to you?

In your opinion, what is the distinction between “teaching” and “leading” or “facilitating”?

What life experiences have you had that will be helpful to you in leading writing workshops with the TWC, or that have led you to want to volunteer with us.

If you have previous facilitation or teaching experience, whether in writing or other areas, are you open to learning and practicing new ways of facilitating?

What groups are you most interested in working with? Are there any groups that you do not feel comfortable working with? (This question is purely to determine your interest and bears no weight in considering your application)

How did you hear about the TWC expressive writing workshops?
